

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
AK	Anchorage	Tyonek Tribal Conservation District	Develop Local Food Business Enterprise for Tyonek Farm and Alaska Native Producers	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $83,290 to the Tyonek Tribal Conservation District to increase domestic consumption and access to locally produced food products in rural Alaska Native Villages and develop new market opportunities for Tyonek and Alaska Native Farms serving a local market.
AL	Huntsville	Food Bank of North Alabama	North Alabama Farm Food Collaborative Expansion Study	Planning	No	LFPP will award $24,020 to the Food Bank of North Alabama to assess the feasibility of a processing facility to process and flash freeze locally grown produce in North Alabama.
AL	Five Points	Monroe Business Ventures, LLC.	Mobile Bottling Unit for Alabama Wineries	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $24,000 to Monroe Business Ventures, LLC., who, on behalf of the Eastern Alabama Wineries Association, will evaluate the feasibility of purchasing and operating a mobile wine bottling unit for use by small scale wineries in the Eastern region of Alabama.
AL	Birmingham	REV Birmingham, Inc.	Urban Food Project: Farm-to-Corner Store Initiative Expand supply chain produce distribution system connecting small, local farmers with food desert retail sites in Birmingham, Alabama.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award REV Birmingham $100,000 to improve and expand their micro-distribution system and invest in key infrastructure and equipment needs.
AR	Conway	La Lucha Space, Inc.	The Locals Food Hub: small town, big potential	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $68,770 to La Lucha Space, Inc. to create a food hub in Conway, Arkansas, to train a food hub specialist, and develop infrastructure capacity that will enhance the community's local food system.
AZ	Tempe	Arizona Board of Regents on behalf of Arizona State University	Food system sustainability in the southwest: Developing a regional action plan to enhance resilience, livelihoods, and food security across New Mexico and Arizona	Planning	No	LFPP will award $23,263 to researchers at Arizona State University to develop a regional food system strategic plan focused on New Mexico and Arizona by identifying assets and best practices.
AZ	Tucson	Community Food Bank, Inc.	Building Capacity in the Regional Food Supply Chain	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to the Community Food Bank, Inc. in southern Arizona to provide technical assistance to institutional buyers and facilitate a preoquer cooperatie to aggregate and market locally grown food.
AZ	Glendale	International Rescue Committee, Inc.	New Roots Food Hub Engagement Initiative; 2014 Local Food Promotion Program Grants -- IRC in Phoenix	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to International Rescue Committee, Inc. (Arizona) to help incubator farmers access aggregation and delivery methods to connect with small retail outlets throughout Phoenix, Arizona, that currently lack fresh fruits and vegetables.
AZ	Flagstaff	Local Alternative Inc.	Northern Arizona Tapa Burger and Food Processing Promotion Program	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,925 to Local Alternative Inc. to improve business operations in sourcing local ingredients for innovative processed products.
AZ	Marana	ReZoNation Farm, LLC.	Southern Arizona Beekeeping and Honey Promotion Program	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,737 to ReZoNation Farm, Inc. to serve as an intermediary between local beekeepers and buyers by aggregating, processing, marketing, and distributing honey products to meet the demand of local/regional food markets in Southern Arizona.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
CA	San Francisco	18 Reasons	18 Reasons Café and Cannery	Planning	No	LFPP will award $25,000 to 18 Reasons to complete market research, write a business plan, and develop a workable model for the 18 Reasons Café and Cannery, a local food enterprise that will create a culinary skills and leadership job training program for members of low access/low income communities.
CA	Livermore	Alameda County Resource Conservation District	Characterizing Demand for Local Meat Processing: A Needs Assessment for Livestock Processing Services in San Francisco's East and South Bay.	Planning	No	LFPP will award $21,261 to the Alameda County Resource Conservation District to perform a needs assessment for a three-county area in San Francisco's East and South Bay regions to quantify and characterize producer need for expanded or enhanced secondary processing of livestock products.
CA	Walnut Creek	California Institute for Rural Studies, Inc.	Filling in the Gaps in the Merced County Food System	Planning	No	LFPP will award $25,000 to the California Institute for Rural Studies to help Merced County growers conduct a feasibility study to determine the use of a local aggregation and cold storage facility, commercial kitchen/processing plant, distribution hub and other infrastructure. The project will also measure interest in developing a local label or participating in the "Buy Fresh Buy Local" initiative.
CA	Capay	Capay Incorporated	Farm Fresh To You Food Hub Donate-A-Box Project	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Farm Fresh To You to help fund their Food Hub Donate-A-Box program. Based in their existing Food Hub, customers can go online to donate local produce to the participating food bank or organization of their choice in the greater Sacramento, Yolo County, San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego areas.
CA	Guinda	Capay Valley Growers, Inc.	Capay Valley Farm Shop: Strengthening local farms by supplying wholesale markets in Northern California	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $97,985 to Capay Valley Growers, Inc. to enhance business processes and infrastructure at their food hub in Northern California.
CA	Ridgecrest	Desert Mountain Resource Conservation and Development Council	Owens Valley Growers Cooperative (OVGC) will establish a Cooperative Center including a food hub and a certified shared kitchen facility for value-added product development.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $89,699 to the Desert Mountain Resource Conservation and Development Council to establish the Owens Valley Growers Cooperative Center including a food hub and a certified shared kitchen facility for value-added product development in the Eastern Sierra Region of California.
CA	Soquel	Ecological Farming Association	Supporting Central Coast Meat Producer's Local Sales with Improved Access to Processing	Planning	No	LFPP will award $25,000 to the Ecological Farming Association to assess the feasibility of opening a Federally-inspected multi-species slaughter and cut-wrap facility in the California Central Coast Region.
CA	Moreno Valley	Family Service Association	Expansion of Mobile Fresh- an intermediary grocery store on wheels to bring locally grown, healthy produce and food products to low-income and low-supermarket areas of the Inland Empire.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Family Service Association to double capacity for mobile local food distribution and sales in low income low access areas of Southern California.
CA	Concord	Fresh Approach	Enhancing Supply Chain Management and Increasing Sales for Freshest Cargo, A Mobile Farmers' Market	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will provide $99,870 to Fresh Approach to improve supply chain management and low income-low access customer engagement for their mobile market through technology and social media.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
CA	Weed	Great Northern Corporation, Renee Casterline	Siskiyou County Local Food Center Feasibility Study	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $11,744 to the Great Northern Corporation to conduct a feasibility study regarding the potential for a local food center in Siskiyou County, California.
CA	Sonoma	Inquiring Systems Inc.	Santa Barbara County Cooperative Farm Food Hub - An extended food hub cooperative farm incubator and educational center with a focus on social justice and other food systems issues.	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $24,662 to Inquiring Systems Inc. to complete a feasibility study for a Santa Barbara Cooperative Farm Food Hub and develop a strategic plan that addresses specific infrastructure needs.
CA	San Diego	Jacobs Center for Neighborhood Innovation	Food Innovation Center Business Plan	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to the Jacobs Center for Neighborhood Innovation to conduct research and planning activities and produce a business plan for a Food Innovation Center, which will include a shared kitchen and storage and distribution utilities for multiple start-up food enterprises.
CA	Monterey	Local Bounty (formally Local Catch)	This project seeks to expand local and regional markets for seafood to low income, low access consumers by aggregating seafood from multiple producers, processing, and delivering seafood in CA.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,968 to Local Bounty (a community supported fishery) to source and deliver high quality, local, sustainable seafood to individuals and families and school lunch programs throughout Central California.
CA	Merced	Make Someone Happy	Attacking Poverty and Food Deserts in Merced County, California	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Make Someone Happy to expand capacity for mobile local food distribution and sales in low income low access areas California's Central Valley.
CA	Oakland	Mandela MarketPlace	Advancing Mandela Fresh Food Distributors	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will provide $90,580 to Mandela Fresh Foods Distributors to expand aggregation and sales activity of the Mandela MarketPlace Local Food System and implement an information technology system.
CA	Concord	Pacific Coast Farmers' Market Association	Connecting Local Food Entrepreneurs and Local Farmers – A Planning Project	Planning	No	LFPP will award $24,980 to the Pacific Coast Farmers' Market Association to assess the market for fresh produce among direct marketing food entrepreneurs, identify the barriers of purchasing local produce by food entrepreneurs, determine interest in and feasibility of an e-commerce system for local produce purchases by food entrepreneurs, and assess marketing opportunities for food entrepreneurs featuring source-identified fresh produce in their products.
CA	Cathedral City	ShareKitchen	Promoting Coachella Valley's Food Systems through Marketing, Aggregation and Incubation	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $97,590 to ShareKitchen to develop a local brand and marketing plan to unify their food product enterprises, create a virtual food hub, re-launch a community pop-up market in the City of Coachella, and establish two new incubation programs to provide training and technical assistance.
CA	Los Angeles	South Central Farmers' Health and Education Fund	Building Local Food Production Capacity for South Central Farmers	Implementation	Yes	LFPP has awarded $100,000 to South Central Farmers' Health and Education Fund to improve its processing capacity for expanded production of culturally important foods in South Central California.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
CA	Truckee	Tahoe Food Hub, Inc.	Tahoe Food Hub will implement a project entitled Building the Capacity of the Sierra Nevada Foodshed" to expand an existing regional food distribution system in North Lake Tahoe.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to the Tahoe Food Hub, Inc. to expand an existing regional food production scheduling and distribution system in North Lake Tahoe (Sacramento, El Dorado, Butte, Yuba, Nevada, Placer, Lassen, Plumas and Sierra counties).
CA	San Francisco	Trust for Conservation Innovation	Food Commons Fresno 'Smart' Food Hub	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,600 to the Trust for Conservation Innovation to fund its Food Commons Fresno "Smart" Food Hub. Activities will include creation of an online inventory and purchasing system; establishment of a physical location for aggregating, sorting, packaging, and distributing; recruiting producer/suppliers; and implementing a delivery system.
CA	Los Angeles	Youth Policy Institute	Los Angeles Promise Zone Local Food Promotion Program	Implementation	PZ: City of Los Angeles	LFPP will award $100,000 to the Youth Policy Institute's Los Angeles Promise Zone to institute multiple Community Supported Agriculture sites to low income-low access buyers of locally grown produce.
CO	Mancos	Mancos Valley Resources	Southwest Farm Fresh Cooperative: A Cloud Hub	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $70,000 to Mancos Valley Resources to build upon an existing, successful local food distribution system model, including a distribution strategy consisting of a decentralized or "cloud"-based infrastructure rather than utilizing a central food hub-style warehouse.
CT	Windham	CLiCK, Inc. (Commercially Licensed Cooperative Kitchen)	Local Farmers and Local Producers: CLiCK Makes the Connection	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $98,110 to CLiCK, Inc. (Commercially Licensed Cooperative Kitchen) to market its facilities to local farmers and local culinary entrepreneurs, and to also create a Farmer/Culinary Entrepreneur's Processing Initiative to increase the production and processing of local foods.
CT	Hartford	Hartford Food System, Inc.	Hartford Mobile Market--Bringing Fresh, Local Fruits and Vegetables to Low-Income Hartford Neighborhoods	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to the Hartford Food System, Inc. to enhance the Hartford Mobile Market, a year-round mobile produce market for in low-income Hartford neighborhoods
CT	Groton	Noank Community Market, Inc.	Noank Community Market Local Meat Initiative	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $75,072 to the Noank Community Market Local Meat Initiative to connect meat and poultry farmers in southeastern Connecticut to consumers in the Noank Community Market retail store.
CT	Gales Ferry	United Way of Southeastern Connecticut	Is a Food Hub Feasible in New London County?	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to United Way of Southeastern Connecticut to determine if a food hub in New London County, Connecticut, is feasible and sustainable.
CT	Bridgeport	Wholesome Wave Foundation Charitable Ventures, Inc.	We will pilot TradeNet, an innovative plan for providing a centralized sales point and coordination of regional food hubs to allow broadline distributors and institutions to source local food.	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $100,000 to Wholesome Wave to pilot a food hub distribution network, TradeNet, which will provide regional food hubs with three critical services: centralized sales and marketing services, business technical assistance, and a region-wide ordering IT platform for food hubs throughout a multi-state region selling local food to wholesale distributors.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
FL	Hollywood, FL	Broward Regional Health Planning Council, Inc.	PATCH CAN! People's Access To Community Horticulture for a Community Agriculture Network	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,052 to Broward Regional Health Planning Council, Inc. to enhance local/regional food distribution efforts and connect regional farmers to local food business enterprises by creating a central marketplace. They will also help to entrepreneurs incubate specialty foods and value-added agricultural products in the Broward, Palm-Beach and Miami Dade local food region.
FL	Apopka	Farmworker Association of Florida, Inc.	Rebuilding Local Food Systems in Farmworker Communities Project	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Farmworker Association of Florida, Inc. to establish community gardens in farmworker communities and to improve farmers markets within targeted low income, socially-disadvantaged communities.
FL	Fayetteville	Southern Sustainable Agriculture Working Group, Inc	Growing Together: The Planning of a North Central Florida Farm Cooperative	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $20,000 to the Southern Sustainable Agriculture Working Group to help North Central Florida farms to create a Farm Cooperative to combine purchasing, marketing and sales to reduce costs and reach a broader local marketplace.
FL	St. Petersburg	St. Petersburg Saturday Morning Market, Inc.	Fresh Access St. Petersburg is a planning grant to determine the demand for and structure of a proposed Food Hub.	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $23,000 to St. Petersburg Saturday Morning Market to analyze market demand for a food hub and determine the best business model. A feasibility study will recommend ways to reduce barriers and increase local food supply at fair prices and create a sustainable business model.
GA	ATHENS	Athens Land Trust	Athens, GA Local Food Connection Program	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $99,754 to the Athens Land Trust's Local Food Connection Program to create a brand and establish a Community Supported Agriculture program that will deliver to local restaurants and institutions. The project will also work toward a shared-use incubator kitchen for producers of value-added products.
GA	College Park	Atlanta Urban Farm	The Georgia Center for Farmers, Producers & Buyers	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $24,740 to Metro Atlanta Urban Farm to Metro to help the Georgia Farmers, Producers, & Buyers Center conduct a feasibility study to investigate the economic viability of a farmer cooperative, training center and community kitchen; to develop a comprehensive business plan; and to disseminate and market the results of the study.
GA	Montezuma	Development Authority of Macon County	Planning Expansion for Goat Meat Processing Facility A business started in Ft. Valley State University incubator, which has outgrown this location, needs a larger permanent facility.	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to the Development Authority of Macon County in Georgia to conduct a feasibility study of a local and regional food business enterprise to develop a goat meat production facility.
GA	Athens	Food Bank of Northeast Georgia	Northeast Georgia Food Hub Business Plan - will help small farms access promising new markets by leveraging the assets of the Food Bank of Northeast Georgia, including IQF processing.	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to the Food Bank of Northeast Georgia to help the Northeast Georgia Food Hub create a business plan that will identify key farmer partners; develop aggregation opportunities; identify core hub services; create a staged plan for hub operations; and create hub financial projections.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
GA	Avondale Estates	Global Growers Network, Inc.	Global Growers Network Food Hub Expansion Project	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $88,390 to the Global Growers Network food hub to expand their urban and rural local producer network in the metro-Atlanta area. Specifically, the grant will support leadership, infrastructure, logistics, farmer network training, and marketing outreach to launch 2015 food hub operations.
GA	Albany	Healthy Living Farms	Healthy Living Farms Community Supported Agriculture(CSA)Project	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to Healthy Living Farm to develop a business plan, marketing analysis and a food safety/food management manual to provide marketing opportunities, training/mentoring and greater food distribution access for rural farmers in the southwest Georgia region.
HI	Kealakekua	Adaptations, Inc.	Improving operational efficiency and producer capacity at a Hawaii Island food hub	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $75,068 to the Adaptations food hub on Hawaii Island to improve outreach to farmers regarding quality control measures, grading, and packing; sourcing new producers; further developing a new online marketplace; assessing the quality of current services while expanding the customer base; and improving customer service.
HI	Hawi	Feed Hawaii, Inc.	Kohala Food Hub: Developing a Community Center to Strengthen North Kohala's Local Food System and Generate Employment Opportunities	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $99,490 to the Kohala Food Hub in Hawaii to help producers and consumers aggregate local produce. They will also provide food processing services as well as branding, marketing, and distributing assistance.
HI	Honolulu	Holoholo General Store, LLC.	Holoholo General Store Leveraging success to build Oahus first sustainable Food Hub for increased connection between producers and markets	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,165 to the Holoholo General Store to create Oahu's first sustainable food hub by increasing its capacity for Community Supported Agriculture subscriptions and adding capabilities for distribution to restaurants, institutions, and retailers.
HI	Hoolehua	Sustainable Molokai	Molokai Food Hub Development	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $98,410 to Sustainable Molokai to develop the Molokai Food Hub. Activities include developing a Molokai Brand logo, outreach and education, connecting with off-island markets, and determining the demand (and how to meet the demand) for local products.
IA	Des Moines	Eat Greater Des Moines/Des Moines Area Religious Council	Using A Local Food Box Approach to Plan for Aggregation and Distribution in Metro Des Moines	Planning	No	LFPP will award $25,000 to Eat Greater Des Moines to pilot a wholesale-level aggregation and distribution system for locally produced food products in the metro Des Moines area.
IA	Oakland	Golden Hills RC&D (Golden Hills Resource Conservation and Development)	Cooperative Poultry Aggregation & Processing Model for Western Iowa Producers	Implementation	No	LFPP will award Golden Hills RC&D $77,356 to develop a cooperative poultry aggregation, processing and marketing model in southwest Iowa to increase regional consumption of, and access to, locally produced poultry.
IA	Decorah	Upper Explorerland Regional Planning Commission	Expanding the Market for Local Food in Rural Iowa	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $88,000 to the Upper Explorerland Regional Planning Commission to implement a regional branding campaign to further increase local food recognition on grocery store shelves within its 150 mile service area, in partnership with the Iowa Food Hub.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
IL	Caledonia	Angelic Organics Learning Center, Inc.	Laying the Groundwork: a Feasibility Study for an Urban-Rural Aggregation Initiative near Rockford, IL	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $24,990 to the Angelic Organics Learning Center to develop a feasibility study and strategic business plan for aggregation of local food and farm products in six emerging markets, including at least three located in low-income and low-access urban areas in northern Illinois.
IL	chicago	Belli's Local Foods Market & Juice Bar	Belli's Local Foods Market Expansion Project	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $30,829 to Belli's Local Foods Market Expansion to develop their local fruit and vegetable juice production capacity and enhance their local food market storefront and juice bar.
IL	Chicago	Black Oaks Center for Sustainable Renewable Living	George Washington Carver Agricultural Center	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to the Black Oaks Center to develop new market opportunities for farm and ranch operations in the Pembroke, Illinois, area by improving the Healthy Food Hub's existing food system facilities by providing training, working capital, and non-construction infrastructure improvements.
IL	Oak Park	FamilyFarmed.org	Good Food Business Accelerator Program	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $99,673 to the Good Food Business Accelerator Program, a technical assistance, marketing, and market development program designed to improve Chicago foodshed local food business enterprises along with the skills of producers who supply them.
IL	Evanston	Farm-Logix, LLC.	Building the National Farm to School Supply Chain Portal: Connecting the Farmer to the School Cafeteria with Distributor Solutions	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to The FarmLogix, LLC. organization to build out their online supply chain portal and coordinate distributor relationships for school-purchased products.
IL	Huntley	McHenry County Food Cooperative (d/b/a Food Shed Co-op)	McHenry County Food Cooperative Market Study, Financial Planning, Store Location and Design	Planning	No	LFPP will award $20,250 to McHenry County Food Cooperative to conduct a market study and location analysis for a new member-owned and operated food cooperative grocery store that will emphasize locally grown and produced foods.
IN	Fort Wayne	Heartland Communities, Inc.	Plowshares Local Food System Project	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to Plowshares, a community economic development project, to develop a local food aggregation, processing and distribution system for local consumption, while creating jobs and job training for new food workers.
IN	South Bend	Purple Porch Cooperative, Inc.	Capacity building at Purple Porch Coop: Producer/Consumer Development in south Bend Local Food Co-op	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,572 to Purple Porch Co-op (PPC) to develop partnerships with local producers, increase physical storage capacity and develop a strategic marketing plan.
IN	Colfax	This Old Farm, Inc.	Local Food Promotion: Food Hub Works to Expand Local Brand Recognition and Consumer Base to Grow the Local Food Economy to Benefit Midwestern Farmers	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $100,000 to This Old Farm, Inc. to increase awareness about the availability and need for local food and markets in Indiana by creating product lines and brand images to develop a comprehensive marketing plan.
KS	Manhattan	Kansas State University	Assessment of the Salina Area Food System	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $24,886 to Kansas State University to explore options for connecting low-income neighborhoods with local food sources in the Saline County area of central Kansas.
KY	Berea	Berea College	McCreary County Food Hub	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $76,774 to Berea College's Grow Appalachia program to implement a local food hub at the site of the former McCreary County Detention Center.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
KY	Salvisa	Four Hills Farm, LLC.	Local Lamb Market and Supply Chain Expansion	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $75,000 to Four Hills Farm, LLC, to strengthen the supply chain, expand market opportunities for partner farms, and double the number of lambs processed and sold in the bluegrass region of Kentucky.
KY	Edmonton	Kentucky Blueberry Growers Association	Kentucky Blueberry Growers: Local Market Expansion, Improved Efficiency and Community Outreach Project	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,783 to the Kentucky Blueberry Growers to expand local market opportunities, improve warehouse and marketing facility efficiency, and provide community outreach.
KY	Louisville	Seed Capital Kentucky, Inc.	West Louisville Food Hub	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to Seed Capital Kentucky, Inc. to assist the West Louisville Food Hub in increasing the purchase and distribution of local and regional food and creating jobs in an economically distressed area through development of space and infrastructure.
LA	New Orleans	MQVN Community Development Corporation, Inc.	Health is Wealth Food Hub aims to expand VEGGI Farmers' Cooperative's growing capacity through internal capacity building, increased direct-consumer marketing, and building of cooperative assets.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $75,300 to the MQVN Community Development Corporation's VEGGI Farmers' Cooperative to improve internal agricultural and handling practices and expand direct marketing and promotion to consumers and buyers in New Orleans East.
MA	Worcester	Central Massachusetts Regional Planning Commission	Southwestern Worcester County Food Hub Feasibility Study	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to the Central Massachusetts Regional Planning Commission to investigate the feasibility of establishing a regional food hub in Southwestern Worcester County.
MA	Lowell	Community Teamwork, Inc. – New Entry Sustainable Farming Project	Strengthening Local Food Access through Training of Local Farmers and Distribution of Local Produce to Low Income, Limited Access Communities	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,685 to Community Teamwork Inc. to distribute local produce to low-income consumers; provide training and technical assistance for producers; and increase income for under-resourced farmers.
MA	Dorchester	Dorchester Bay Economic Development Corporation	CCK Commissary @ Pearl (CCKC@P): A social venture commissary kitchen supporting local sourcing, small business development, and job creation by offering bulk purchasing, contract processing and storage.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Dorchester Bay Economic Development Corporation to redevelop the Pearl hotdog factory into a multi-tenant food production small business center and kitchen incubator to promote small business, create jobs, improve access to healthy food, and strengthen the regional food economy.
MA	Dorchester	Dorchester Community Food Co-operative	Local Farms to Low Income Urban Communities: a New Model of Urban Food Co-op	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to the Dorchester Community Food Co-op to create affordable pricing and product mix strategies, pilot a new "farmer-owner" membership model, recruit and educate a pool of local residents as future worker-owners in the co-op store, and hire a seasoned general manager.
MA	Greenfield	Franklin County Community Development Corporation	Western MA Food Processing Center Expansion Project to increase regional food to institutions and retail.	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $100,000 to Franklin County Community Development Corp to facilitate the expansion of Western Massachusetts Food Processing Center's production capacity and enable them to increase the availability of locally grown food in the region throughout the year.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
MA	387 Main Road	Hilltown CDC	Community Planning for a Regional Food System in the Hilltowns. Increase economic agricultural development in the rural hilltowns of Western MA working directly with farmers and a local food coop.	Planning	No	LFPP will award $25,000 to Hilltown CDC to complete a market study on the viability of expanding the Old Creamery Cooperative in Chestertown, Massachusetts to increase sales of local farm products.
MA	Worcester	Lutheran Community Services, Inc.	Fresh Eats: Improving Access for Urban Consumers of Local Produce in Springfield and Worcester, Massachusetts	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $98,500 to Lutheran Social Services in the Worcester and Springfield areas of Massachusetts to aggregate the produce of 30 small-scale, immigrant and refugee farmers, which will then be distributed to and sold at farm stands, farmers markets and Community Supported Agriculture farm share programs.
MA	Boston	Mayor's Office of Boston Food Initiatives	City of Boston Urban Agriculture Visioning Group	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to the Mayor's Office of Boston Food Initiatives bring diverse organizations to the table with the goal of creating a vision for Boston around food production and distribution.
MA	Plainville	Red Tomato	Traceability and Labeling for Wholesale Markets Designed to Add Value for Growers and Consumers	Planning	No	LFPP will award $20,225 to Red Tomato to research and plan a traceability and labeling system that meets requirements of wholesale produce customers; improves on-farm efficiency in data management; and links consumers directly to farm identity and marketing.
MA	South Dartmouth	Southeastern Massachusetts Livestock Association Inc.	Southern New England Meat Processing Initiative	Planning	No	LFPP will award $25,000 to the Southeastern Massachusetts Livestock Association (SEMALA) to build and operate a USDA-certified slaughtering and meat processing facility.
MD	Baltimore	Civic Works – Real Food Farm	Expanding Local Produce Marketing and Consumption Opportunities in Baltimore	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,411 to Civic Works to expand and improve its current Mobile Farmers Market program by increasing personnel, storage infrastructure, and enhancing promotional market materials.
MD	Takoma Park	Crossroads Community Food Network, Inc.	Cultivating New Food Entrepreneurs and Supply Chain Relationships for Local Foods in the Takoma Langley Crossroads	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,430 to the Crossroads Community Food Network to train 60 aspiring food entrepreneurs in their Microenterprise Training Program, grow 25 new businesses through their Community Kitchen Technical Assistance Program, and strengthen markets for locally grown and locally produced food by working with producers and retailers.
MD	Riverdale	Engaged Community Offshoots, dba ECO City Farms	Growing the Local Food Market in Prince Georges County Md.: increasing local food access and consumption, and local food based businesses in food desert areas	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to ECO City Farms to expand an existing low income farm share/ Community Supported Agriculture program and create an incubator market to help new local micro farmers and food entrepreneurs through technical assistance and opportunities for marketing at a new weekly on-farm market.
MD	New York	International Rescue Committee, Inc.	2014 Local Food Promotion Program -- IRC in Baltimore	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to International Rescue Committee, Inc. of Maryland to research, design, and implement a community-based cooperative that would allow refugee and asylee microproducers access to local markets by pooling products and resources.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
ME	Auburn	Good Shepherd Food Bank	Expansion of Mainers Feeding Mainers into Rural Border Counties	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award the Good Shepherd Food Bank $100,000 to develop food acquisition partnerships with Maine farmers operating in or adjacent to the five remote rural counties that border Canada, including increasing capacity to store, preserve and distribute produce in the winter; expand direct farm-to-pantry food distribution hubs; to pilot two new fresh produce processing partnerships; and to increase the safety and efficiencies of perishable food transport practices and systems.
ME	Portland	Greater Portland Council of Governments	Institutional Markets Feasibility Study for Cumberland County, Maine	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to The Greater Portland Council of Governments to conduct a feasibility study about how to increase farmer and fishermen access to institutional markets, including schools, colleges, universities, hospitals, and summer camps.
ME	Lewiston	GROW L+A	Farm-2-Fork Food Hub Feasibility Study	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to Grow L+A to conduct a feasibility study to determine food demand and supply dynamics in the Lewiston-Auburn region of Maine with the intention of developing a viable, sustainable food hub.
ME	Fairfield	Kennebec Valley Council of Governments	Next Steps: The Pickup Growth Project	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $76,500 to Kennebec Valley Council of Governments to support The Pickup, a multi-farm Community Supported Agriculture program, to expand its customer base in terms of organizational, marketing and electronic sales capacity.
ME	Belfast	Maine Farmland Trust, Inc.	Building Capacity and Markets for Rural Maine through Smart Food Hub Growth	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,999 to the Maine Farmland Trust to develop a food hub in Unity, Maine, by increasing capacity for aggregation, processing and marketing services, while also providing technical assistance.
ME	Gorham	Plowshares Community Farm, Inc.	Expanding Plowshares' Customer Base and Market Area	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $97,452 to Plowshares Community Farm Inc. to institute a comprehensive marketing campaign and improve aggregation and storage infrastructure.
ME	Machias	Sunrise County Economic Council	Sunrise Food Infrastructure Initiative: Local Markets Viability Project	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $24,321 to the Sunrise County Economic Council to conduct a feasibility study to articulate key factors that contribute to the viability of local food markets in Washington County, Maine, with the hopes of determining a clear set of actions and metrics to stimulate development and expansion of local food markets and distribution systems in the area.
MI	Farmington Hills	City of Farmington Hills	Reviving the 19th Century General Store: Leveraging Local Food Systems to Revitalize a Corridor and the People it Supports	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to the City of Farmington Hills to develop a comprehensive feasibility study to revitalize the Grand River Corridor by providing local, healthy food distribution and education in a renovated historic building near the area's biggest employer, the Botsford Hospital.
MI	Ann Arbor	Fair Food Network	Fair Food Consulting Corps: Technical Assistance to Support the Development of Regionally-Scaled Food System Infrastructure	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $100,000 to the Fair Food Network to identify and provide business assistance to food system enterprises in the Northeastern U.S. to help small and mid-scale farms access new markets; develop new products; improve access to local food for communities; create jobs as the enterprises grow; and prepare enterprises for growth financing from Fair Food Fund.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
MI	Traverse City	Goodwill Industries of Northern Michigan, Inc.	Expansion of Farm to Freezer Program	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Goodwill Industries of Northern Michigan, Inc. to assist in the expansion of their Farm to Freezer aggregation and distribution program.
MI	Ypsilanti	Growing Hope, Inc.	Ypsilanti MarketHub: Planning for Micro-Distribution of Local Food to Increase Food Access	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $24,794 to Growing Hope to help the Ypsilanti MarketHub to develop business plans and partnership/operational agreements to increase distribution to corner stores; mobile markets, farm stands, and Community Supported Agriculture-style boxes; an incubator and processing kitchen; and expanded aggregation/packing facilities.
MI	Harbor Springs	Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians	Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians Ziibimijwang Planning Project	Planning	No	LFPP will award $25,000 to the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians to create two strategic plans for their Tribal Farm, Ziibimijwang, with the hopes of creating either a Tribally Supported Agriculture Network or selling the crops at the local farmers' markets (depending on the results of the feasibility study).
MI	Caro	Tuscola County Economic Development Corporation	MI Green Thumb Food Hub Planning Project	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $6,074 to Tuscola County Economic Development Corporation to complete a market, production, and infrastructure analysis to identify and implement strategies to create a food hub.
MN	Saint Paul	Hmong American Farmers Association	Accessing New Marketing Opportunities and Training Low Income Hmong Farmers in the Saint Paul/Minneapolis Metropolitan Area	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to the Hmong American Farmers Association to expand and improve its Alternative Markets Program, which trains and supports small scale, low income, urban-dwelling Hmong farmers to access new markets in the Twin Cities metropolitan area.
MN	Saint Paul	Lower Phalen Creek Project	Urban Oasis: Local Food Business Planning Grant	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $24,850 to the Lower Phalen Creek Project to plan a new local food business offering catering services and value-added food products to diverse communities in St. Paul, Minnesota, that will focus on "farmer seconds" (imperfect produce) to be processed into prepared meals and value-added products.
MN	Mankato	Minnesota Valley Action Council Inc.	MVAC Food Hub expansion to develop capability to process local food	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to the Minnesota Valley Action Council to operate a Food Hub and expand their processing services.
MN	Staples	North Central Economic Development Association	SPROUT Marketplace: Expands access to markets, provides TA for network of over 40-growers who comprise regional food hub business enterprise "SPROUT, MN" - provides education & outreach to consumers.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,500 to the North Central Economic Development Association to expand their regional food hub into an indoor year-round market place.
MN	St. Paul	Stone's Throw Agricultural Cooperative	Local Market Expansion for Immigrant Farmers	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,000 to Stone's Throw Agricultural Cooperative to expand local vegetable and meat sales in the Twin Cities area sourced from low-income immigrant farmers by supporting new personnel and implementing an online ordering and tracking system, among other operational activities.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
MO	Saint Louis	Fair Shares	Fair Shares Delivers - Just Local Food	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $100,000 to Fair Shares to develop new markets for a Community Supported Agriculture program in St. Louis and to purchase more food from small local farms through advertising, delivery and refrigeration.
MO	Columbia	Root Cellar Grocer, LLC.	Expanding Local Food to Rural Missourians	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Root Cellar Grocer, LLC, a food hub based out of Columbia, Missouri, to expand to three additional micro-retail locations and create an integrated distribution approach.
MO	St. Louis	St. Louis Farmers Association	Growing Accessible Healthy Food Systems in St. Louis Low-Income communities and in Missouri	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $91,000 to the St. Louis Farmers Association to expand existing local food business enterprises; provide technical assistance, advertising, and marketing assistance; and establish a model for other cities and rural areas around the state.
MS	Jackson	Soul City Hospitality, LLC.	Soul City Hospitality Central Mississippi Food Hub	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Soul City Hospitality's Central Mississippi Food Hub project to open a new regional food hub within a former produce distribution facility; develop a pilot program for aggregating, storing, and delivering locally grown food; and create systems for measuring the impact of the program on key stakeholders, specifically small- and medium-sized farmers.
MT	Ronan	Lake County Community Development Corporation	Farm to Hospital: Augmenting Consumption of Regionally Produced Fruits, Vegetables, and Value- Added Products to Contribute to Patient Health and Increase Market Opportunities for Rural Western Montana	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $99,986 to the Lake County Community Development Corporation to expand institutional markets for producers, and increase the consumption of healthy, regionally produced food for patients, visitors, and staff at hospitals.
NC	Greensboro	City of Greensboro	Fresh Food Access Plan for Greensboro. This project will produce a strategic plan to improve access to regionally and locally produced fresh foods in areas of Greensboro designated as food deserts.	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to the City of Greensboro, North Carolina, to improve retail access to local, fresh foods in high poverty neighborhoods with limited food access.
NC	Durham	NCABL Land Loss Prevention Project	A Tale of Two Cities: Promoting Increased Access to Health Foods	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $73,132 to the North Carolina Association of Black Lawyers Land Loss Prevention Project to encourage the use of food hubs by assessing food access and legal risk with the goal of strengthening farmers' ability to market locally and provide access to healthy food choices.
NC	Durham	Reinvestment Partners	Bull City Cool Food Hub	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Reinvestment Partners to help the Bull City Cool Food Hub provide produce to meet GAP standards, equip a food processing center for flash-frozen foods, and promote local farmers and the food hub through outreach and education efforts.
NC	Chapel Hill	University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill	The North Carolina Green Cart Program: Improving organizational capacity to reach underserved communities with affordable, locally grown produce.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill to support the North Carolina Green Cart Program that will train low-resource farmers to competitively sell their produce to Veggie Van, a mobile-market that distributes affordable North Carolina-grown produce to lower-income and underserved communities.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
NC	Boone	W.A.M.Y. Community Action, Inc.	High Country Community Supported Agriculture	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to WAMY Community Action's High Country Community Supported Agriculture program to expand the availability of local, organic produce to residents of Watauga County and to establish a new market in neighboring Avery County, North Carolina.
NC	Warrenton	Working Landscapes	Warren FoodWorks: Growing a Diversified Food Hub in Rural North Carolina	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Working Landscapes to develop a diversified food hub in Warren County, North Carolina, by growing their existing farm-to-school initiative to a self-sustaining level and expanding their operations to include meat processing, prepared items/school fundraisers, a shared-use kitchen, and a retail space.
NE	Holbrook	Central Plains Foundation, Inc. dba GROW Nebraska	Local Food Local Success:GROW Nebraska will deliver technical assistance that develops, improves and/or expands food business enterprises and cooperatives that market their products regionally.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,919 to GROW Nebraska to deliver technical assistance, market entry training and market access assistance (including wholesale) to Nebraska food business enterprises serving local and regional markets.
NE	Lincoln	Farmers Educational and Cooperative Union of Nebraska d.b.a Nebraska Farmers Union	Cultivating Producers: Increasing capacity of local food producers through food safety training, wholesale business development, and on farm efficiency.	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $89,979 to the Nebraska Farmers Union to offer technical assistance, safety training, and capacity building for beginning, transitioning and existing agricultural producers in strategic locations across the state.
NE	Omaha	Gretchen Swanson Center for Nutrition	Where's the Beef? A Needs Assessment for Connecting Local Beef Production to Small Stores in Rural Nebraska.	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $24,977 to the Gretchen Swanson Center for Nutrition to bolster the local beef supply chain by connecting small stores to producers.
NE	Omaha	No More Empty Pots	Promoting local foods through aggregation, distribution and value-added products to support economic resilience in urban and rural communities of northeastern Nebraska and southwestern Iowa.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to No More Empty Pots to create a regional community kitchen and food hub that provides business services, technical assistance and cooperative opportunities for production and distribution activities.
NH	Loudon	Miles Smith Farm, LLC.	Local Beef for Healthcare Institutions in NH Food Deserts	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $92,120 to the Miles Smith Farm to partner with five New Hampshire beef producers to provide locally raised beef to health care institutions in New Hampshire.
NH	Manchester	Organization For refugee and Immigrant Success	Expanding Local Market Opportunities for Refugees producers IN NH	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $88,585 to Organization for Refugee and Immigration Success to support the establishment of an agricultural cooperative, including a multi-farm Community Supported Agriculture system and sales to local institutions.
NJ	Montclair	Township of Montclair	Montclair Mobile Farm Stand	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $50,776 to the Township of Montclair, New Jersey, to purchase a mobile farm stand to help produce reach more low income/low access communities and individuals.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
NM	Albuquerque	Delicious New Mexico (Rio Grande Community Development Corporation)	In the Mix: Developing the Right Ingredients for the Espanola Food Hub	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Delicious New Mexico to provide outreach, marketing, training and technical assistance to improve and expand the Espanola Food Hub into an incubation hub for Northern New Mexico food businesses.
NM	Silver CIY	National Center For Frontier Communities	Gila Region Comida Buena Hub	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to the National Center for Frontier Communities to assess the feasibility of a regional food hub to support a more self-sufficient local food economy in southwestern New Mexico.
NM	Santa Fe	Santa Fe Community Foundation	Expanding Food Access and Community Food Systems in Rural New Mexico Food Deserts.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to the Santa Fe Community Foundation to expand a local, healthy food procurement program to low-income and low-access communities that will improve the capacity of Pueblo agricultural producers through farm-to-market training.
NY	Amagansett	Amagansett Food Institute	East End Food Hub Feasibility Study.	Planning	No	LFPP will award $25,000 to Amagansett Food Institute to complete a feasibility study to develop East End Food Hub, including a business plan outlining steps for implementation if feasibility is established.
NY	Brooklyn	Bedford Stuyvesant Restoration Corporation	To enhance and expand Farm to Early Care fresh food purchasing program, and the capacity of the distributor to participate.	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $73,988 to the Bedford Stuyvesant Restoration Corporation to expand a pilot Farm to Early Care Project in Central Brooklyn by increasing access to farm fresh, healthy food for 1,500 children while generating increased revenue for participating farmers.
NY	Troy	Capital District Community Gardens, Inc.	The Urban Grow Center Food Hub will expand an existing food hub to better reach urban institutions and serve our region's small to medium sized farms	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Capital District Community Gardens to expand their existing food hub and implement more efficient mechanisms to increase farmer income and extend the season of local food offerings through through direct shipments, palletization of material and improved produce handling and storage systems.
NY	Oneonta	Center for Agricultural Development & Entrepreneurship	Lucky Dog Local Food Hub Expansion and Producer Development.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $70,038 to the Center for Agricultural Development & Entrepreneurship to increase its food hub activities and producer development, including upscaling aggregation and transportation, buyer introductions and educational workshops.
NY	New York	Corbin Hill Food Project, Inc.	Corbin Hill Food Hub: Expanding Food Access to Vulnerable Populations	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $84,696 to Corbin Hill Food Project to deliver locally produced fresh produce and other agricultural products to low income/low access residents in four New York City boroughs by increasing the food hub's aggregation process.
NY	Hamden	Cornell Cooperative Extension Assoc.in the State of New York-Delaware County	DELAWARE FRESH planning grant application for $25,000 to determine feasibility of establishing online food ordering and pick up service as a direct farmer-to-consumer distribution.	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to Cornell Cooperative Extension of Delaware County in New York State to conduct a feasibility study to develop an online marketing, ordering and centralized distribution delivery system, without overlap of costs to farmers and food producers for distributions, services, trainings, and marketing.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
NY	Watertown	Cornell Cooperative Extension Association of Jefferson County	Growing to Meet the Market (GMM) proposes to increase domestic sales and consumption and expand local production and processing of meat products in Jefferson, Lewis, and St. Lawrence Counties of NYS.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,948 to Cornell Cooperative Extension Association of Jefferson County to organize beef, pork, small ruminants and poultry growers into a cooperative model, expand meat slaughter capacity, and successfully market these products locally.
NY	Lockport	Cornell Cooperative Extension of Niagara County	Planning for a Western NY Food Enterprise Center	Planning	No	LFPP will award $23,276 to Cornell Cooperative Extension of Niagara County to determine the feasibility of a facility that will benefit small and mid-size farmers wanting to sell value-added products and also food business entrepreneurs who want to develop new products for market.
NY	New York	Council on the Environment, Inc. d/b/a GrowNYC	Scaling Up Greenmarket Co.: Creating Viable Infrastructure for Local Food Distribution in NYC	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to GrowNYC's local food hub and distribution program to increase staff food safety and customer service development and training; target sales outreach to institutional buyers; and increase marketing of regionally-produced grains and flours.
NY	Athens	Field Goods, LLC.	Online Platform for Ordering from Local Food Producers.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $50,000 to Field Goods, LLC, to develop a web-based ordering, communications, and inventory management system.
NY	Rochester	Foodlink, Inc.	Foodlink Food Access Programs: Linking Local Farms and Underserved Communities	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,629 to Foodlink's Food Access Programs in the Rochester, New York, area to link local agriculture with underserved communities in the Greater Rochester area that want farmers markets but do not have the economic viability to sustain them. The project will purchase local produce and establish diverse markets in low income/low access communities.
NY	Canastota	Side Hill Farmers Cooperative, Inc.	Side Hill Farmers Meats & Market: marketing to increase customer base. Local-foods retail shop will conduct a regional marketing campaign, introduce wholesale product line, and implement POS system.	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $70,415 to the Side Hill Farmers Cooperative to increase revenues and customer base at its local-foods butcher shop and grocery by launching a regional marketing campaign; introducing a limited wholesale product line; and establishing a point-of-sale customer-tracking and management system.
NY	Bronx	South Bronx Overall Economic Development Corporation	Bronx Restaurant Retailer Cooperative's Local Foods Feasibility Study.	Planning	No	LFPP will award $25,000 to South Bronx Overall Economic Development to complete a feasibility study and business plan on use of locally-sourced ingredients in restaurant menus. The project will then create a local food integration resource guide.
NY	Salamanca	Southern Tier West Regional Planning and Development Board	Meat and Poultry Processing Facility Feasibility Study	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $24,750 to the Southern Tier West Regional Planning & Development Board to assess the need expressed by meat and poultry producers for a new slaughter and processing facility in the region to reduce the distances producers currently travel.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
OH	Athens	Appalachian Center for Economic Networks, Inc. (ACENet)	30 Mile Meal Brand Expansion	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $60,718 to the Appalachian Center for Economic Networks, Inc. to provide additional support to the 30 Mile Meal in the areas of consumer education, outreach, marketing materials and strategies, and increase the capacity of local farmers to meet increased demand of new institutional buyers and restaurants. The project plans to expand the 30 Mile Meal program to additional Ohio counties (Athens, Licking, and Perry) that are not already covered by the program.
OH	Youngstown	Common Wealth, Inc.	The 30 Mile Meal is a promotional campaign that markets farm/processor products and businesses/institutions that source food locally to consumers under one recognizable brand.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Common Wealth, Inc. to provide technical assistance to the 30 Mile Meal™ Project, a branding campaign that operates in Mahoning, Trumbull, Columbiana and Ashtabula Counties in Ohio and Mercer and Lawrence Counties in Pennsylvania, with the goal of gaining 50 new buying partners and placing products from 30 new producer partners into new outlets.
OH	Mahoning	Grow Youngstown	The project is called the Farm To YOU Boost. This project will increase interest in and expand the market for local food in Ohio's Mahoning and Trumbull counties.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $97,186 to Grow Youngstown to implement the Farm To YOU Boost campaign designed to both increase domestic consumption of and access to locally-produced source identified agricultural products and to develop new market opportunities for farm operations serving local low-income markets in Mahoning & Trumbull Counties.
OH	Toledo	Maumee Valley Growers Association	The Maumee Valley Growers (MVGA) will conduct a feasibility study to evaluate the viability of operating a food hub adjacent to the Farmer's Market in Toledo's central city.	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to Maumee Valley Growers Association to complete a feasibility study evaluating the viability of a food hub that will allow for year-round food production and a "seed-to-sale" model. The study will determine the most suitable location, assess associated costs and identify interested stakeholders.
OH	Cincinnati	Our Harvest Cooperative	Growing the Capacity of the Our Harvest Food Hub: by expanding local markets, increasing the supply and marketability of local food, and by increasing operational efficiency and year round capacity	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Our Harvest Cooperative to expand markets for local food; increase the supply and marketability of local, sustainable food; hire additional packing and distribution staff; and increase the year-round capacity of the food hub through processing partnerships.
OH	Columbus	The Ohio State University OSU Extension, Champaign County	Commercial Shared-Use Kitchen and Retail Space Feasibility Study	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $5,300 to The Ohio State University Cooperative Extension of Champaign County to conduct a feasibility study on an incubator/commercial shared-use kitchen and local food retail space that also serves Logan, Miami, Clark and Union Counties.
OH	Wooster	Wooster Local Foods Cooperative, Inc, dba Local Roots Market and Café	Marketing the Market: Growing Local Roots	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $98,280 to the Wooster Local Foods Cooperative to implement a marketing program that works with local marketing and design experts to expand the market through different avenues of outreach including promotions, advertising, improved signage, and customer relations.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
OR	Portland	Ecotrust	Building Oregon's Chicken Supply Chain for Institutions	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to Ecotrust to analyze Oregon's existing supply of regionally-produced, antibiotic-free chicken; assess demand and specifications for this chicken from local institutions, including schools and hospitals; and develop an implementation plan to address gaps in the supply chain.
OR	Portland	Friends of Zenger Farm	Supporting Southeast Portland Food Entrepreneurs	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,966 to Friends of Zenger Farm to support micro-food enterprises through kitchen incubators and technical assistance in southeast Portland through access to tools, expertise, and marketing opportunities.
PA	Spring Mills	Adam Seitz dba Penns Mault	Pennsylvania Grown, Pennsylvania Malted, Pennsylvania Brewed: Building a premium market opportunity for Keystone farmers and brewers by filling the farmer to brewer malt-processing gap	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $95,270 to Penns Mault to help establish a premium market for farmers and brewers by building farmer capacity to grow malting barley varieties in Pennsylvania; implementing a malt production system; and providing outreach to Pennsylvania farmers, aspiring malters, brewers, and the general public.
PA	Philadelphia	Common Market Philadelphia, Inc.	Local Fresh Food Project	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $100,000 to Common Market Philadelphia, Inc. to improve the safety, quality, reputation and marketability of food grown by small family farmers in the Mid-Atlantic region through establishment of rural, refrigerated aggregation points and improved post-harvest handling protocols.
PA	Philadelphia	Culinary Cuts, LLC.	Data Analytics for Grass-fed Beef Producers in the Northeast: the purpose of this project is to build data analytics for grass-fed beef producers in the Northeast as a tool for farmers and buyers.	Implementation	PZ: City of Philadelphia	LFPP will award $100,000 to Culinary Cuts, LLC (d.b.a. Philly CowShare) to build data analytics for grass-fed beef producers in the Northeast, including carcass data such as weight and quantity of items fabricated from the animal.
PA	Doylestown	Doylestown Cooperative, Inc.	Doylestown Food Co-op Integrated Marketing/Communication Implementation Grant - Requesting funding to implement an integrated marketing program for our food co-op, in support of local farmers.	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $38,746 to Doylestown Food Co-op to complete a marketing and communications project that will include both in-store product and event marketing, as well as web-based and social media marketing.
PA	Philadelphia	Drexel University	Last Chance Foods: A Model for Value-Added Off-Spec Foods for Enterprise and Sustainability	Planning	PZ: City of Philadelphia	LFPP will award $25,000 to Drexel University's Food Lab and its Enterprise Center's Dorrance H. Hamilton Center for Culinary Enterprises to create an innovative commercial food system that will demonstrate ways to transform food surplus throughout the local and regional food supply chain cycle (sourcing, processing, production & distribution) into marketable food products for direct sales.
PA	Philadelphia	Fair Food	Produce Distribution Improvement Project	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $91,852 to Fair Food to improve its partner, FarmArt's, line of local produce and expand the number of grocers purchasing their local produce through a marketing campaign.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
PA	Uniontown	Fayette County Community Action Agency, Inc.	Republic Food Enterprise Center, a comprehensive center designed to meet the southwestern Pennsylvania region's need for fresh, locally sourced foods.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $93,458 to Fayette County Community Action Agency, Inc. to help the Republic Food Enterprise Center, a regional food hub in rural Fayette County, to aggregate, store, process, market, and distribute produce and food products while promoting the development of food enterprises in southwestern Pennsylvania.
RI	Providence	Farm Fresh Rhode Island	Meeting Institutional Needs with Rhode Island Agriculture: Mapping the Way. Farm Fresh Rhode Island will conduct a feasibility plan for the growth of its food hub to reach local institutional buyers.	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $22,500 to Farm Fresh Rhode Island to conduct a feasibility study to enhance its local food aggregation and distribution program, the Market Mobile, that serves local institutions, including schools, hospitals, food pantries, and care facilities.
SC	Charleston	South Carolina Coastal Conservation League	Facilitating the expansion and sustainability of local food systems in South Carolina through GrowFood Carolina, the state's first local food hub.	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $100,000 to South Carolina Coastal Conservation League Inc. to help GrowFood Carolina increase income by assisting with crop planning and enhanced training and educational opportunities, increasing the market value of harvested crops, extending product seasons, diversifying inventory, increasing storage capacity, and creating new market prospects.
SD	Brookings	South Dakota State University	Expanding Opportunities for Collective Marketing of Local Foods in South Dakota	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to South Dakota State University to create a food hub in the southeastern quarter of South Dakota.
TN	Johnson City	Appalachian Resource Conservation & Development Council	Implementing a collaborative food business enterprise in the Heart of Appalachia, NE TN and SW VA, by leveraging existing infrastructure and expertise to increase locally grown supply and demand.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $98,717 to The Appalachian Resource Conservation & Development Council to coordinate activities across the Tennessee-Virginia border to aggregate and distribute local food to retail and wholesale markets affordably and efficiently, and to assist farmers with increasing production supply to meet new market demand.
TN	Chattanooga	Crabtree Farms of Chattanooga, Inc.	Chattanooga's Local Food Program	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $96,400 to Crabtree Farms to produce TasteBuds, a 48-page color guide with farm and local food business listings, as well as informational articles and recipes, and local food maps. The project will also provide farmer trainings, networking opportunities, public outreach, farm-to-institution materials, and technical assistance.
TN	Knoxville	Knoxville-Knox County Metropolitan Planning Commission	Knoxville Regional Food Hub Feasibility Study	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to the Knoxville-Knox County Metropolitan Planning Commission to evaluate the need for a food hub to support demand and supply of local foods as well as the services necessary to increase the success of the local food system in the East Tennessee region.
TX	Elgin	City of Elgin	Elgin Texas Local Food Processing Center Business Plan	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $24,750 to the City of Elgin, Texas, to develop a business plan for a community local food value-added processing center.
TX	Dallas	North Texas Alliance of Growers	Dallas Wholesale Chefs' Market Innovation Initiative	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $87,980 to the Dallas Wholesale Chefs' Market Innovation Initiative to develop an online technology system that will facilitate the ordering of locally produced products by chefs looking for farm direct connections.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
UT	Salt Lake City	Wasatch Cooperative Market, LCA.	Wasatch Cooperative Market Feasibility, Planning and Marketing	Planning	No	LFPP will award $25,000 to Wasatch Cooperative Market to determine the Market's feasibility; planning, financial and business plans; and store design while improving communications with local farmers, producers, potential funders and the general public.
VA	Alexandria	Arcadia Food, Inc.	Arcadia's Mobile Market: Building Access to Local Food in Washington, D.C.'s Underserved Communities	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $98,350 to Arcadia Food, Inc. to expand the scope and scale of its Mobile Market program in the Washington, D.C. area by conducting an outreach and marketing campaign.
VA	Charlottesville	City of Charlottesville	Virginia Produced: Developing New Markets for Lightly-Processed and Flash-Frozen Virginia-Grown Produce	Planning	No	LFPP will award $25,000 to the City of Charlottesville, Virginia, to help "Virginia Produced" build a self-sustaining flash-freezing and light food processing hub.
VA	HOPEWELL	Green Harvest LLC trading as Milton's Local	Developing Coordinated Distribution, Aggregation and Marketing of Locally Produced Swine and Cattle Products to Benefit Farmers, Wholesalers and End-Consumers.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $98,790 to Green Harvest Capital LLC (trading as "Milton's Local") to develop wholesale distribution channels, market strategies and aggregation of farmers producing local swine and cattle products in Virginia and the District of Columbia.
VA	Falls Church	Jennifer G. Beckman D/B/A Red Onion Foods	Drafting a Business Plan for a Local Produce Processing Plant in Northern Virginia	Planning	No	LFPP will award $20,590 to Red Onion Foods to examine the feasibility of launching a for-profit local foods processing facility in Northern Virginia.
VA	Roanoke	Local Environmental Agricultural Program	LEAP Community Incubator Kitchen and Local Food Hub	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to the Local Environmental Agriculture Project to develop local food infrastructure in the Roanoke Valley, including the implementation of a kitchen hub that will act as a center for food and farm-related business.
VA	Charlottesville	Local Food Hub, Inc.	Marketing the Value of Local Food	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $48,000 to the Local Food Hub, Inc. to develop a robust marketing and outreach effort that distinguishes their values-based approach, increases community awareness of the benefits of a strong local food economy, and develops customized marketing and collaboration strategies for each of the market segments in which Local Food Hub works.
VA	Culpeper	Rappahannock-Rapidan Regional Commission	Virginia Piedmont Regional Food System Planning	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $15,014 to the Rappahannock-Rapidan Regional Commission to conduct an economic analysis of the food shed and develop a regional food system strategic plan through a series of focus group and strategic planning meetings.
VA	Harrisonburg	Salatin & Cloud LC (dba True & Essential Meats)	Grant will support a Planning Study for the expansion of True & Essential Meats, a small USDA inspected meat processing plant doing private label slaughter & packing for local farmers in Virginia.	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $22,320 to True & Essential Meats to conduct a feasibility study in partnership with Lineage Architects PC to determine the most effective, efficient, and economical way to expand their USDA-inspected small meat processing plant.
VT	Montpelier	Vermont Housing and Conservation Board	Advancing the Viability of Vermont's Food Hubs	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $100,000 to the Vermont Housing and Conservation Board to increase the overall business viability of Vermont's food hubs and to increase the amount of local food being moved through those hubs.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
WA	Mount Vernon	Community Action of Skagit County	Skagit Bounty: Prosperous Farms, Vibrant Health, a business plan for the Skagit Food Distribution Center to marry new market opportunities for producers with increased access for low-income consumers.	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to Community Action of Skagit County, Washington, to create a business plan to develop, improve and expand their warehouse to sustainably market, store and distribute produce from Skagit farmers.
WA	Lynwood	Institute for Washington's Future	Re-Directing 'Buy Local': Including Latino Farmers and Low Income Consumers in the New Urban Market	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $88,500 to The Institute for Washington's Future to improve and expand their food enterprise in partnership with the Real Food Buying Club and the Washington Latino Farmers Network through a direct marketing initiative.
WA	Renton	King Conservation District	Regional Food System Gap Analysis	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to King Conservation District to complete a feasibility study to expand and improve the local food system. This study will identify key infrastructure needs including storage, processing and distribution systems and develop a database and map of existing resources.
WA	Vashon	Lauren Sheard (Farmstead Meatsmith)	Farmstead Meatsmith needs to build its mobile slaughter truck. This will allow us to attain WA state certification, process beef and expand our unique country-wide educational offerings.	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $25,913 to Farmstead Meatsmith to establish a mobile slaughter truck, which will also provide hands-on harvesting opportunities for student-farmers, as well as additional educational materials.
WA	Camano Island	North 40 Farm Food SPC	Pilot ValueAdded Program to Facilitate Year Round Local Food Consumption	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $98,628 to North 40 Farm Food SPC to conduct a pilot value-added processing program for small rural farmers in western Washington State through development of educational tools for producers, including workshops, manuals and business planning services.
WA	Mount Vernon	Northwest Agriculture Business Center	Puget Sound Food Hub CAGE: 4SNG3 , EXP: 12-July-2014	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to the Northwest Agriculture Business Center to help the Puget Sound Food Hub improve infrastructure and operations at two existing food hub aggregation sites and add a third aggregation site.
WA	Seattle	Tilth Association	Seattle Tilth Produce is a food hub that 1) organizes very small farmers in King and Pierce Counties, 2) establishes viable markets, 3) buys, aggregates and sells the products.	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $100,000 to the Seattle Tilth Association to support 30 incubator farmers, assess the barriers very small producers face connecting to local markets, and assist an additional 20 King and Pierce County farmers by providing marketing, crop coordination, storage, aggregation and distribution.
WI	Prairie du Chien	Community Development Alternatives, Inc.	Promoting the Path from Farm to Table	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $91,981 to Community Development Alternatives, Inc. to produce new locally sourced food products; employ, train and educate individuals; and to market and deliver new food products in Gays Mills, Wisconsin.
WI	New Glarus	Cow & Quince, LLC.	Cow and Quince Community Kitchen: Eating Local Year-Round	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $68,155 to Cow & Quince, LLC to provide farmers and local food producers with a commercial kitchen and retail outlet in the New Glarus, Wisconsin, area.
WI	Viroqua	Fifth Season Cooperative	Fifth Season Expands to Chicagoland	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $99,400 to Fifth Season Cooperative to expand its frozen food line to Chicago, a new market within 400-miles of all the Cooperative's members.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
WI	Menasha	Goodwill Industries of North Central Wisconsin, Inc.	Local Food Security Enterprise Regional Planning	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $22,890 to Goodwill Industries of North Central Wisconsin, Inc. to create a local food enterprise, anchored by their existing Community Food Incubator, that can directly interact with all of their existing food security program components.
WI	Milwaukee	Growing Power, Inc.	Fresh Moves Mobile Farmers Market Program	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Growing Power, Inc. to implement Fresh Moves Mobile Market, which uses donated CTA buses converted to mobile produce markets to serve low-income/low-access areas of the City of Chicago.
WI	Lake Mills	JRS Country Acres	Building local Midwest egg markets through efficient grading and distribution	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $25,113 to JRS Country Acres (JRS) to aggregate, sort and clean, package, broker and distribute local Wisconsin eggs from six farms into local retail and restaurant markets in the Midwest.
WI	Oneida	Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin	Oneida Food Enterprise Development & Healthy Foods Initiative	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $80,429 to the Oneida Tribe of Indians to provide technical assistance in food handling, preservation, branding, and marketing strategies to local producers.
WI	Dodgeville	Southwest Wisconsin Community Action, Inc.	This proposal is to conduct a feasibility study and complete a business plan for a new regional food enterprise center to be located in SW Wisconsin.	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to Southwest Wisconsin Community Action, Inc. to conduct a feasibility study and complete a business plan for a new regional food enterprise center.
WI	Milwaukee	Urban Economic Development Association of Wisconsin, Inc.	SE Wis Food Sector as an Economic Development Vehicle & Connector to Local Food	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to Urban Economic Development Association of Wisconsin, Inc. to conduct a feasibility analysis that will assess the challenges of, and opportunities for, southeast Wisconsin's food sector to serve as an economic development vehicle for non-profits and to enhance existing connections to local food producers.
WI	Madison	Wisconsin Food Hub Cooperative	Diversifying Local Market Channels for Wisconsin Farmers	Implementation	No	LFPP will award $99,728 to the Wisconsin Food Hub Cooperative to expand outreach and technical assistance to producers who are now primarily using direct-market channels for selling their products in southern Wisconsin.
WV	Philippi	Heart and Hand House, Inc.	Barbour County Aggregation Center	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $25,000 to Heart and Hand House, Inc. to develop an aggregation center that will fill a void in the local food supply chain, expand marketing opportunities for local producers, improve access to locally produced foods in public schools and other institutions, provide employment and positively impact the local economy by keeping food dollars in the community.
WV	Huntington	Unlimited Future, Inc.	Building capacity for distributing local foods in the Ohio Valley.	Implementation	Yes	LFPP will award $100,000 to Unlimited Future, Inc. to connect aggregation points, markets and farmers throughout the Ohio River Valley thereby creating regional food aggregation and distribution hubs.
WY	Casper	Bould Development	Identifying Opportunities for Local Food-based Development in Casper, WY.	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $24,554 to Bould Development to complete a community food assessment to determine the food needs of the community, increase food-related sustainability and self-reliance and create an economic environment for diversified farming and locally produced food.

LFPP Funded Projects and Summaries

State	City	Organization	Proposal Title	Grant Type	Priority/PZ?	Funding Summary
WY	Lovell	Lovell, Inc.	Big Horn Basin Food Hub Feasibility Study	Planning	Yes	LFPP will award $24,990 to Lovell, Inc. to evaluate the potential for a Regional Food Hub in the Big Horn Basin.